Graduation Day

June 9, 2006

A little pregame preparation~
just like kindergarten-clothes on straight, buddy system, big smile, and follow the leader.

SHS faculty lead the graduation procession. Everyone knows teachers value education; but it is only at graduation that they actually wear their degrees on their shoulders.

Sam Brigham and Heather Burkhardt smile knowing they will officially graduate fifteen to twenty minutes earlier than Meg Walker and Dan Williamson (bottom center).

Carl Stocks waves to friends and family. What started out as a cloudy day, turned into a beautiful evening for an outdoor graduation.

You never know what the camera will catch. Emily Werner is temporarily blinded by her National Honor Society tassel.

Being at the beginning of the alphabet was tough as students slowly marched. By the time the "S" crew rounds the corner the procession developed an easy-going stride.

Valedictorian and Student Council President, Bill Grace, leads SHS in the Pledge of Allegiance for the last time.

Jim Doherty and Bobby Dillon laugh at Bill Grace's witty valedictory address. Many of those in attendance agreed Grace's speech was one of the best they had ever heard at a graduation.

Vinnie Capellupo and Rich Chessia clap for Grace's speech which included many references to cultural icons, including: the Princess Bride's Rodents of Unusual Size, the infamous Scituation Barrel of Monkeys, Carrie Bradshaw's columns, and Will & Grace's friendly banter.

Thanks for joining us Stevi! A little behind schedule, Stevi Singleton slides into her seat next to Kelsey Simpson with time to spare before she walks across the stage.

Matt Appleby, Emily Badger, Kitty Belote, Taylor Billings and Jackie Billotte, listen to all of the Class of 2007's accolades and accomplishments.

There’s Only This Forget Regret
Or Life Is Yours To Miss”

“No Other Road
No Other Way
No Day But Today”

There’s Only Here
Give In To Love
Or Live In Fear
No Other Path
No Other Way
No Day But Today”

Congratulations!

We've got three years down now and only one more to go. The class of 2008 has seen many changes. There may have been a crack down on cell phones and MP3 players this year, but we will keep on trying to sneak in those fabulous cafinated drinks each morning that help push us through the day. 2008

Class of 2008 Officers Secretary Devin Horgan, Treasurer Kelsie Litchfield, President Coley Cook, Vice-President Carly Glancy spent their junior year planning for prom. Between fundraising and organizing the juniors were able to reach their goal and put on a successful night to remember.

Oh, sophomore year. You are no longer the youngest, but not even close to the oldest. Everyone is anxious about getting their permit and then, hopefully, their driver's license. All year long you dread the impending MCAS and then spend hours in March and May taking a "graduation" test and you are still only half way through high school. What is the Class of 2009 to do during all this waiting...

As the newbies, the Class of 2010 quickly found their place in the halls of SHS. Freshmen by nature are forced to "move in a new direction" and that they did. The undefeated freshmen football team spent their mornings strategizing in the English hallway and planning for the next game and later the next season. Students joined clubs and teams, as they looked to find their niche. By the time June rolled around the class of '10 had made their mark.

Football

The Scituate High School football team has undergone a lot of changes within the last few years. New head coach, Steve Castle is the fourth coach in four years and for this team, "the future is now." The boys had a very competitive schedule, facing teams such as Dartmouth, Rockland, Duxbury and Silver Lake. It seems like many of the games were extremely close but unfortunately Scituate has not come out victorious. The Sailors have lost several very close games, like Rockland 19-18, Silver Lake 28-21, and Duxbury 21-20.

There were 25 returning team members including key players such as senior captain Gary Crowley who was in the top 50 in the U.S. for passing and #1 in the state for passing and total offense. Senior Jay Milkiewicz was number one in Massachusetts in receiving and total all purpose yards. Senior captains Jason Roach and Nick Mullin were both top five in tackles in the state.

Freshman Joey Mullin was also a key member of the team, as he was an unbelievable team manager.

Known as "Fhock" to most players, the SHS Girls Varsity Field Hockey team had an impressive season. This season's team consisted of two captains Diana Crowley and Heidi Sheehan, along with 11 returning players and 9 new varsity players making up a strong camaraderie within the team. Overall they came out with a record of 7-10-1.

Although they did not qualify for tournament they still had several remarkable games. In their game against Pembroke they displayed their best offensive performance and won with a score of 3-1. Also they held strong against Hingham, the undefeated Patriot League Champions with a close score of 2-1. The girls also had an extraordinary game against Plymouth South winning with a score of 8-0.

An impressive six members of the team were recognized as Patriot League All-Stars, including Sheehan, Crowley, Megan Thibeault, Katie Gillan, Molly Yuknis and Lauren Martino.

Golf

Members: T.J. Devane, Andy McCourt, Liam O'Hara, Kerry Harrigan, Brian O'Reilly, Dave Sparks, Scott Taylor, Alex Wall

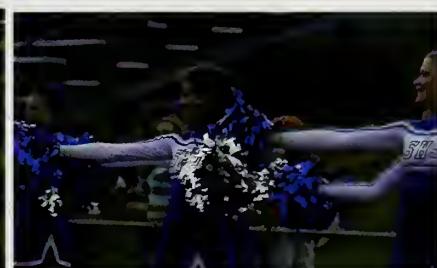

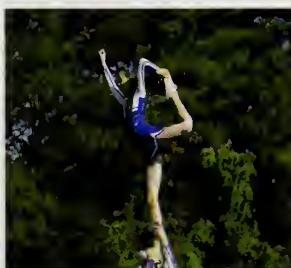

Led by senior captains Mike Levanchy and Taylor Billings, the SHS golf team had another successful season. Although they faced hardships such as losing to the Division 2 champion Duxbury two times by 15 strokes each match, they ended their season with a respectable record of 5 wins and 7 losses.

The team included 11 returning starters. Levanchy, Billings and Rich Chessia, the three seniors of the team competed in the Patriot League Championship.

Levanchy shot a 79 to finish second out of 24 All Stars. He also shot a 79 in the division 3 state tournament, finishing 10th out of 93. Led by coach Bob Beatty they had a great fall season overall.

For the first time since 2003 the girls Varsity Soccer team qualified for the State Tournament. Not only did they qualify, they made it past the first round. With new coach Ross Maki, the girls had an exceptional season. Senior captains Anna Flynn, Robin Dienel and Addison Rubenstein led their team in a cheer of "Fight, Score, Win, Do It, Ha!" before each game.

The many significant accomplishments throughout their season included tying both Duxbury and Hingham at 0-0, and defeating the league champion Hanover with a score of 1-0.

The girls first tournament game was profoundly memorable, to say the least. With a score tied of 1-1 throughout the game they headed into overtime. After two rounds of a scoreless 20 minutes of OT, the first set of penalty kicks came. After five shots Scituate and Mansfield were still tied, so they went into the second round of PK's. Finally, senior Courtney Sarantos made the winning goal and the girls really meant it when they cheered "We're goin' to the Ship... what."

Unfortunately, two days later their cheers and excitement led to tears and anger. Opponent Cardinal Spellman defeated Scituate 2-1 in the second round of the state tournament.

All in all, the team had an awesome season and no matter win or loss, anything from Kelly Clarkson, Jo Jo, Yung Joc, or The Lion King was belted out by the girls on the way home from away games.

Boys Soccer

New coach James Forde and senior captain's Trevor Lewis, Steve Littke, and Kevin Palmer led the boys' soccer team through various ups and downs throughout their season. One low-point, in particular, was when they missed the playoffs by 2 games knowing Rockland would be the deciding factor for their season. They lost to them twice by a score of 2-1 even though they carried the play most of the game.

On the other hand on one cold rainy and dark afternoon (so dark they turned the lights on) the boy's senior game was a horse of a different color. During the game against Middleboro, Palmer had a hat trick, Littke had a goal and an assist, senior Greg Chisholm had a goal, and senior Craig Parker had an assist.

With the chant of "1-2-3-11!" before each game, emphasizing the fact that it takes eleven guys on the field to win or it takes eleven to lose, the boys ended their season with an overall record of 5-10-3.

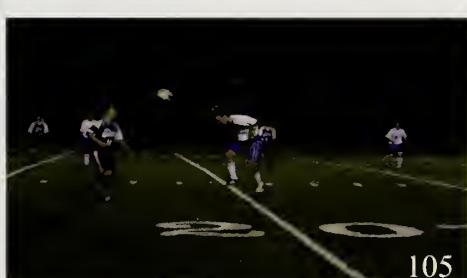

Coach: James Forde

Team Manager: Tim Demers

Members: Cody Adamson, Andrew Dempsey, Adam Farragher, Brenton Gammon, Donald Gillespie, Jake Kasianowicz, Chet Kupchella, Andrew Martino, Brian McGuinness, Tad Rogers, Kris Scribner, Jake Shilue, Pat Swanson, Sam Wicks

The girls and boys Cross Country Team definitely had a certain flare this year. Led by their mascot of the "SLOW" bright green turtle guys you see edging the streets of Scituate, dressed in a track uniform as their mascot. They trained in ways such as an exciting scavenger hunt and to end their season they got a moon walk for their banquet.

On the serious side of things, they were led by Coach Kathleen McCarthy, senior captains Erin McIntyre and Jill O'Conner and junior Emily Zaccardi on the girls team. Senior captain Donald Gillespie and juniors Chris Yuknis and Matt Weydt led the boys. The team was pretty successful this year. With only nine returning cross country runners the boys and girls team had a predominantly new team, with 23 first time runners. They ended their season with the girl's record of 5-3 and the boy's of 4-4.

Brian McGuinness and Megan Ghegurovich were named Patriot League All Stars. In addition, senior Jill O'Conner and freshman Sam Wicks won the Patriot League Sportsmanship award.

UMass Boston is where the varsity basketball boy's talent brought them. Only one win away from the Fleet Center, yet still extremely remarkable. Talent, hard work, skill and determination from each player on the team helped them achieve many victories. Senior captains Alex Danowski, Mike Steele and Dante Cohen along with seniors Alex Hernan and Mike Levanchy helped lead the team this season. Also key players included junior Blaine O'Brien, Sean McCarthy, and the freshman dynamic duo Rodney Beldo and Sammy Malone. The Sailors defeated Martha's Vineyard, Medway, and Foxboro and fell to Medfield in the tournament. They ended their season with an impressive record of 21-3.

Patriot League Champions 2007

Record: 16-5

Ending with a 16-5 record and the title of defending Patriot League Keenan Division Champions, the 2007 team was unforgettable. Senior captains Diana Crowley, Heidi Sheehan, and Corey Cuddihy will definitely be missed. Sheehan was not only a Patriot League All-Star but also the MVP of the Patriot League Keenan Division. Cuddihy and junior Maegan O'Rourke were also recognized as Patriot League All-Stars. Sheehan and Cuddihy also received Patriot Ledger All-Scholastic recognition as well.

Hockey

Words cannot express the excitement and thrill of the Boys Varsity Hockey Season. State Champs, for a start. It's been twenty-two years since the hockey program at SHS was talented, hardworking and absolutely determined enough to earn the title of State Champions. After defeating Ashland, Old Rochester, and Westwood the boys almost came up short against Norwell. Almost, that is. With about 30 seconds left and down by one, nearly everyone thought their season was coming to an end. A few knew it wasn't. Senior Tim McGrath scored an amazing goal to tie up the game, and then senior "Sleeping Dragon" AKA Jamie Hewins won the game in overtime.

Next up was a rematch against St. Dominic Savio Prep., the same team the Sailors lost to at the DCU center last year in the semi-finals. Payback is, well, you know what it is. The Sailors came out strong with the Fleet Center on their minds the whole game, and that's just where it left them. March 18, 2007 will be remembered forever, when the Sailors skated on the ice of the TD Banknorth Garden. But not only skating...controlling, sprinting, sweating, dominating, and finally... winning. The championship and only goal was scored by junior Jamie Pratt. The title of State Champions though was scored by the entire Boys Varsity Hockey Team. Congratulations on a phenomenal season!

The combined Scituate and Cohasset team did very well this season. Senior Justin Damaso, and Rob Lilly, junior Brian McGuinness, sophomores Sean Crowley, Emily Mulcahey and freshman Megan Little all qualified for post-season swim. The boy's team finished seventh in the State Sectionals and in the State Finals. McGuiness swam the 500 free at States and placed third. He also swam the 200 free and placed seventh. The boys 400 free relay consisting of Lilly, McGuiness, and two swimmers from Cohasset, also finished third at States. Little was the only girl to qualify in an individual event for States and swam the 100 free and the 500 free.

The boys baseball team did great this year, showing that without last years seniors, they were still a force to be dealt with. They fought hard through long, grueling matches, and in the end, came out with their pride and dignity representing Scituate High School. This years captains Mike Levanchy, Ryan Little, and Tim McGrath all set examples and blended the team as one, mean, super powerhouse.

COLOPHON

The 2007 Chimes yearbook theme was Moving in a New Direction. While thinking about themes at the beginning of the year, the staff kept coming back to how much things seem to be changing, not only at Scituate High School, but also in the greater community. From new eligibility requirements for sports and activities, to numerous new teachers, to the increasingly crowded SHS hallways- we definitely are moving in a new direction. In town, new construction of roads, homes and businesses all lead us to the realization that the MBTA Greenbush commuter rail is now a firm reality- we will be able to get to the city by train and soon.

Chimes was printed by Taylor Publishing Company at their plant in Dallas, Texas. Conrad Schmidt was the company representative. There were 170 copies sold for $85 each, with 144 full color pages in each copy. All pages were designed by Chimes editors and the members of the 2006-2007 Scituation newspaper staff using Adobe InDesign software. Cover art was designed by the exceptionally talented Jen Dawson '07. O'Connor Studios of Tewksbury, MA, represented by Steve Dillard, provided all underclass, faculty, and group club photos, as well as several sports team photos. Many sports photos were provided by Suzy Park of Days End Photography of Scituate. Primary student photographers were Matt Appleby '07 and Meg Walker '07.

Chimes is advised by Ms. Colleen Gacic and would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of the following 2007 graduates: Tatiana Maraj, Vanessa McLellan, and Courtney Sarantos- who worked as section editors, and the lovely ladies of the afternoon shift- Kait Buckley, Addie Kerner, and Becca Westleman. A thank you also goes out to the rest of the layout staff including Sarah Lazarovich, Katie Mason, Amy Park, and Melissa Warren. We'd also like to give a shout out to the next generation of Chimes staff: freshmen Sean Donovan and Katie Jacobsen who also contributed throughout the year.

Finally, many people wonder why the name of the SHS yearbook is Chimes. The Scituate Historical Society has provided us with an answer in this year's ad on page 143. We thank them for their wisdom and the support from all our business, community and family sponsors.
